

Dan Rotondo

135 Rio Robles East #379, San Jose, CA 95134
518 - 320 - 6460

dm30roto@gmail.com
<http://droto.net/home>

OBJECTIVE

To design and develop web applications that improve the lives of others, focusing on the user experience.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Experience with JavaScript, HTML, CSS, various CSS/JS frameworks, Java, Flex, Visual C#, ASP.NET, PHP, SQL, AJAX, and Software Documentation.

EDUCATION

M.S. in Information Technology, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute
Concentration in Human Computer Interaction, December 2012 3.57 GPA

B.S. in Computer Science, Siena College
Minor in Multimedia, May 2011 3.35 GPA

EXPERIENCE

Cisco Systems – Software Engineer

3/2013

- Design and develop for various software projects in the Data Center Group, including the UCS Manager GUI, UCS Central, and KVM Launch Manager.

Cisco Systems – Software Engineer Intern

6/2012 – 8/2012

- Contributed to a Proof-Of-Concept making a collaboration tool that is a digital cork-board using with Node.js and Socket.io.

The Ayco Company – Level II Intern

11/2011 – 4/2012

- Visual C# web development in which I developed a web based quiz system.

Gavant – Software Application Developer Intern

06/2011 – 08/2011

- Took ownership for one phase of Latham International's mobile web application.

Siena College Athletic Department – Web Administrator Intern

01/2010 – 05/2011

- Created an online form section for coaches to fill out NCAA required forms.

ADDITIONAL WORK AND ACTIVITIES

Recon Rally

01/2010 – 05/2011

- Working with a group as team leader and UI developer on an Android campus event and tour app using the PhoneGap platform.

Siena College Summer Scholars Program

05/2010 – 08/2010

- Developed and implemented a completely finished IAT web application using (X)HTML, JavaScript, and AJAX.